GOCYCLES

A Gocycle is just the thing for a small boy or girl. Enjoyed more than other machines of its kind.

WHY THE GOCYCLE WINS.

IT IS SAFE. The child can step off more quickly than he can fall sideways and it is nearly impossible to fall forward or backward. This is why so many parents prefer it to roller skates, especially for small children.

THE LITTLE SKILL required to ride the Gocycle makes it as fascinating for a child as a bicycle is for a youth or older person. In many neighborhoods it outnumbers skates, coasters, tricycles and all such vehicles combined.

AS A CHILD quickly learns to run it with either foot it is a splendid exercise and tends to symmetrical development.

AS A LITTLE GIRLS' as well as boys' toy its grace and beauty in action are unsurpassed.

ITS EASY AND PERFECT CONTROL in steering makes its use on the sidewalk unobjectionable as it takes up no extra space and is not in the way of pedestrians.

IT IS SPEEDY, light, strong and durable, made entirely of hardwood and iron and its lasting qualities are equaled by few toys.

It is very inexpensive, only $1.25 cash or T. P. W. trading stamps.

MAKING POSTS OUT OF CEMENT

SUPERINTENDENT McNARY OF HOSPITAL IS MAKING NEW EXPERIMENT.

Superintendent W. D. McNary is doing some experimental work at the Eastern Oregon branch hospital in this city which may revolutionize fence-building in this part of the state. Instead of using cedar posts, which must be replaced every few years, he is manufacturing reinforced concrete posts which will last a lifetime and he is doing it at a cost that will mean a considerable saving to the state in the long run.

Dr. McNary got his idea from an article in an engineering magazine which described the process and recounted the success with which the government has employed these durable posts in eastern communities during the past few years. He had the molds made and hired a concrete worker who chanced to have had experience in making posts for the government on the Indian reservations in Oklahoma. He now has several hundred posts made and will continue operations at this time until he has 1600, enough to make five miles of fence.

He has kept a careful check upon the cost of the cement and labor and estimates that the cost per post will be about 25 cents. Cedar posts cost about 20 cents. Reducing the cost per post is a little scheme of economy which the superintendent hit upon. Having miles upon miles of discarded barbed wire at hand, he has had this cut up into six foot lengths and is using it instead of steel rods for the reinforcing. Six of these strands are placed in each post and serve admirably the purpose for which they are intended.

These posts are seven feet two inches long and will be sunk in the ground thirty inches. The butt of the post is six by six and the top six by three and a quarter. Large staples are molded into each post by which the wire netting is fastened to the posts. The staples pass through the meshes of the netting and an iron rod dropped through the staples holds the netting securely. On the top of each post is an iron hook to which the barbed wire may be fastened.

Eventually Dr. McNary intends having all of the fence on the hospital farm enclosed with fences of this permanent character.

BLACK AND WHITE CREATION.

Dame Fashion knows no law either natural or otherwise. The fact that flocks of butterflies are not supposed to make their appearance in the fall of the year concerns her not a whit and she waves her magic wand and behold hundreds of them alight upon Missy's Autumn bonnet. They are made in some instances of enormous tulle loops or fashioned of wired net, spangled with jet sequins, the body being of chenille covered wire. The hat above is of black velvet, crown and brim being covered with it while poised near the edge of the latter to the right of the front is a butterfly of white velvet, the body and antennae of jet.

Dresses of Soft Taffeta.

Both manufacturers and buyers have vivid recollections of unsatisfactory results in handling taffeta dresses. For this reason the new, soft taffetas brought out for fall and winter have been taken very slowly.

Only the softest chiffon taffetas are used, as the cheaper grades will not give good service.

While some of the striped, plaided and printed taffetas are used in combination with the plain, the majority of the dressy gowns are developed in the plain taffeta.

For evening wear the colors favor the pastel shades found in the sweet pea, the soft tones of pink, yellow, lavender and rose are among the special favorites. With these soft silks are used beaded garnitures and sashes; also all over beaded nets and laces arranged in the waist and for the draperies.

Street dresses adhere closely to the darker colors, such as navy, brown, mahogany, Russian green and taupe.

Novelties in Separate Skirts.

According to the Dry Goods Economist, the number of novelties now in the market has helped materially to stimulate business in separate skirts. There has been a big demand this fall for skirts made of dark rich plaids, novelty cords, rattines and other novelty fabrics.

Silk skirts, including crepe de chine, crepe metee, moires and failles, are being taken in moderate quantities. A few high class velvet skirts have been ordered for the openings, also some of fur fabrics, particularly broadtail. Corduroys in white and in colors are expected to be good.

The use of sashes or girdles at the waist line is noted on many of the higher priced numbers. In some instances this girdle or sash is of fancy braid, but in the majority of cases it is of ribbon.

While the slashed skirt is still to be found in the lines, in most cases the slashes are of moderate depth. In some instances the skirts have buttons and buttonholes so they can be worn open or closed, at the discretion of the wearer.

While there has been considerable discussion about skirts being made wider, up to the present time they average from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 yards around the bottom. Only a few buyers are asking for two-yard skirts.

Lemon Dessert.

This simple dessert is especially nice in hot weather, says the Newark News. Mix two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch with the juice of a lemon and then stir it into 1 1/2 cups of boiling water in a double boiler. Add the beaten yolks of sugar. Boil the mixture for five minutes; then take from the stove and add the whites of the eggs beaten stiff. Pour the dessert into glasses to cool, and serve topped with whipped cream.

Topographic Maps Constitute Dictionary of Altitudes.

The topographic maps made by the United States Geological Survey show by means of contour lines, of which there are thousands on some maps, the altitude above sea level of every portion of the areas represented. In addition to portraying all physical characteristics as well as the works of man, these maps constitute a wonderfully detailed height of every hill and slope. As the portion of the United States already mapped is more than 40 per cent of the total area, and includes also the most important regions these maps constitute in fact a comprehensive dictionary of altitudes.

On the evening of the same day, Miss McKenna will be married to James S. Johns of this city at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKenna, Williamette boulevard, Portland. There will be no attendants and only immediate relatives will be present. A reception will follow the ceremony. Both young ladies have been much feted recently. On Saturday Miss Edith Woodcock entertained for their pleasure.

The recital given at the Christian church Saturday evening by Miss Malet Burnett and Miss Nellie Whiting, Walla Walla pianists, was a pleasurable one to Pendleton music lovers. Miss Burnett, who is a pupil of the Raifs, Berlin, and Moskowsky, Paris, is a very talented musician and her playing is artistic in the extreme and free from mannerism. Her numbers were widely varied and gave an opportunity for the display of her technical ability and mastery of the instrument. Miss Whiting is a graduate of Miss Burnett's school and is now assisting her. She plays with brilliancy and abandon, and with a thorough appreciation of the intent of that which she is interpreting.

Pendleton Aerle No. 28, Fraternal Order of Eagles, enjoyed a smoker Friday evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall, there being about 150 members and guests present. A splendid program was enjoyed in the early part of the evening. Karl Gultott contributed several piano selections and Charles Atcheley made music on the violin. George Hackathorn, Richard Lawrence and Joseph Rounsley sang several solos and Tom Nye gave an exhibition of hypnotism. J. T. Hinkle of Hermiston, first worthy past president, gave an excellent address on the history of the local aerle. The evening was concluded by a clam banquet.

Mrs. Frank E. Boyden and Mrs. Thomas Thompson will be hostesses on Wednesday afternoon from three until six at the home of the former. Their function will be in the nature of a silver tea for the benefit of the missionary society of the Presbyterian church. A musical program will be given.

Mrs. J. J. Roulstone and daughter, Miss Nettie Roulstone, well known in Pendleton, will leave Walla Walla this week for Los Angeles to spend the winter. The latter will leave Sunday by auto as far as The Dalles where they will ship the car. Mrs. Roulstone will join her Thursday in Portland.

CONDITIONS FAVORABLE FOR PENAL EDUCATION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 20.—Conditions are more favorable for educational work in penitentiaries and other penal institutions and reformatories than they are in the public schools of the country, according to Prof. Bert E. Merriam, psychologist and educational director of the New Jersey State Reformatory at Rahway, N. J., who addressed the American Prison Association in annual convention here. Prof. Merriam startled the association with this assertion when he was pointing out that educational work in penal institutions should be productive of great success provided the proper system is followed.

"Inmates of penal institutions," said Prof. Merriam, "are better clothed, better fed and better housed than pupils of our public schools. They have not the worry and drain which poverty at home means. Officers may be sharp; discipline may seem severe, but the thoughtless blows and whippings given by drunken fathers and mothers at home, are far worse. In New York city alone, many thousands of pupils go to school every season, especially the morning one, having had nothing more than a cup of coffee for their meal. Inmates of penal institutions are regularly fed substantial meals; they are warmly clad; they get wholesome exercise; they sleep regularly; they are kept physically clean. Can this be said of the myriads of East Side children and countless thousands who live in similar 'East Sides' of others of our great cities?"

A dollar looks like a cart-wheel—twenty places to put it. Year by year, YOU GRIND YOUR VERY LIFE AWAY.

Come with us. Be one of us. WE can show you the way that leads to a brighter life a lucrative profession as yet in its infancy. The world of motion picture production holds out untold opportunities to YOU. YES, TO YOU. We are a co-operative association of motion picture-play authors, handed together for MUTUAL benefit—one for all and all for one. Individually, we have passed through every stage of progression in our adopted profession, until, by force of will and environment we have forged a SUCCESS that is growing larger day by day, outstripping our most sanguine expectations. At first, thrown together by circumstances and affiliation, then by successive stages into a small club for the interchange of ideas, and finally NOW into a full grown professional association of SUCCESSFUL men and women.

Our work is lucrative easy, and educational. Our time is practically no employer. We are FREE from the drudgery of wages, a desk, a plow or a salescounter. And we can help you, can make you one of us, give you every opportunity that at first was denied us; see that you succeed—we don't brook failure.

No, dear reader, we are NOT in any sense either a so-called correspondence school, attempting the unattainable; nor distributors for technical works of overstocked publishers, that have little value except the profit derived from their sale. Just a mutual organization that is so founded, so conducted, that each member is a help to each other; in reality the most unique organization of its kind in the world today. It is an organization of SUCCESS, for SUCCESS and built on SUCCESS.

Our headquarters are in Los Angeles, California—in the very heart of motion picture production. FIFTY-SEVEN producing companies are located NOW in this city and its environs. That number is increasing month by month. We are in touch daily with every move of this wonderful business. We feel its heart throb, we know its needs, we realize the untold money-making opportunities it holds out to YOU. Experience right here in the field has given us the keynote to success in our profession.

You think that $1500 per month over what you are now receiving is absurd? Reader, consider: Many men and women in this profession who came from the ranks of plod-a-day workers are receiving incomes from $5000 to $10,000 annually. A few get more than either of these sums. If you can read, write and observe the most ordinary happenings of everyday life, you can SUCCEED, by coming in with us. Literary ability is NOT NECESSARY. It would really be in your road.

Know more of this profession. To know is to act; to act is to receive. NOW, TODAY, drop a postal to the address below and simply say, "Send me details." No obligation.
